

Dissecting Board (Wooden)

MODEL - BI-011

MAKE - AK LABS

This wooden dissecting board is crafted with a sturdy, neatly finished frame and smooth working surface for dependable laboratory use. Its durable construction provides a stable platform for practical work, while the raised edge design helps keep specimens and materials securely positioned.

PRODUCT SPECIFICATION

Material	Wood
Board Type	Dissecting Board
Surface	Flat Wooden Working Surface
Edge Design	Raised Border
Construction	Rigid Wooden Construction
Usage	Dissection & Practical Work
Available Size	12 × 18 in.

PRODUCT DETAILS

Designed for laboratory dissection and practical demonstrations, this wooden dissecting board provides a stable, convenient workspace for handling specimens during biological and anatomical studies. The broad flat surface supports comfortable working, while the surrounding raised wooden frame helps contain small instruments and materials. Its lightweight construction allows easy handling and storage, making it suitable for schools, colleges, teaching laboratories, and training facilities.